

Allocation of Parental Rights and Duties

Rights and Duties	Each has at All Times	Each has During Possession	Solely Mother	Solely Father	Joint
Duty to inform the other parent in a timely manner of significant information concerning the health, education, and welfare of the child.
Right to receive information from the other parent concerning the health, education and welfare of the child.
Right to confer with the other parent, to the extent possible, before making a decision concerning the health, education, and welfare of the child.
Right to access to medical, dental, psychological, and educational records of the child.
Right to consult with a physician, dentist, or psychologist of the child.
Right to consult with school officials concerning the child's welfare and educational status, including school activities.
Right to attend school activities.
Right to be designated on the child's records as a person to be notified in a case of an emergency.
Right to consent to medical, dental, and surgical treatment during an emergency involving immediate danger to health and safety of the child.
Right to manage the child's estate to the extent the estate has been created by the parent or the parent's family.
Duty of care, control, protection, and reasonable discipline of the child.
Duty to support the child, including providing the child with clothing, food, shelter, and medical and dental care not involving an invasive procedure.
Right to consent for the child to medical and dental care not involving an invasive procedure.
Right to consent for the child to medical, dental, and surgical treatment during an emergency involving immediate danger to the health and safety of the child.
Right to direct the moral and religious training of the child.
Duty to make periodic child-support payments.
Right to establish the primary residence of the child.
Right to consent to medical, dental, and surgical treatment involving invasive procedures and psychiatric and psychological treatment.
Right to receive and give receipt for periodic payments for the support of the child and hold or disburse the funds for the benefit of the child.
Right to represent the child in legal action and to make other decisions of substantial legal significance concerning the child.
Right to consent to marriage and enlistment in armed services of U.S.
Right to make decisions concerning the child's education.
Right to services and earnings of the child.
Except when a guardian of the child's estate or a guardian or attorney ad litem has been appointed for the child, the right to act as an agent of the child in relation to the child's estate if the child's action is required by a state, the U.S., or a foreign government.
Duty to manage the child's estate to the extent the estate has been created by community property or the joint property of the parents.					